DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: Applicant is required to make the following specie elections:

A. Elect one of the oxygenation reactions listed in Figure 2 which are characterized by the following labels:

- i. epoxidation of a acyclic olefin or a ring double bond;
- ii. oxidation of a sulfide or heteroatom;
- iii. hydroxylation alpha to a ketone; or
- iv. Baeyer-Villiger-type oxidation of a ketone.

The species are independent or distinct because Each reaction requires a different substrate, has a different mechanism and has a chemically different outcome.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1, 3-14, 16, 17, 19-23 and 25-32 are generic.

B. Elect whether the monooxygenase component is generated either:

- i. directly (requires further specie elections) or
- ii. at any point in its electron transport chain (requires further specie elections).

The species are independent or distinct because direct regeneration of monooxygenase acts on the enzyme and requires different steps and reagents to effect regeneration compared to an indirect method by causing some change in the electron transport chain.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 11-3, 8-15, 24, 28-35 are generic.

Art Unit: 1651

Subspecies election for B:

If the direct monooxygenase regeneration specie is elected, Applicant is required to elect one of the following methods for direct regeneration:

1. in situ regeneration electrochemically (includes claims 5, 7, 25, 27); or
2. in situ regeneration chemically (includes claims 5, 6, 25, 26).

The species are independent or distinct because the equipment and/or reagents required to carry out the methods are different. Electrochemical regeneration requires a cathode, anode and an electrical supply. The chemical method requires the addition of a chemical, formate or alcohol, to the enzyme.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 11-3, 8-15, 24, 28-35 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
